To the honorable H. S. K. Morrison, Judge of the Circuit Court of Lee County Virginia, Humbly complaining your orator, O. T. Spencer, would respectfully represent and shew unto your honor that at the December term 1889, of your honor's Court, he obtained Judgment against G. W. Sullivan for the sum of $86.35 with interest thereon from the 8th day of January 1889 until paid and $8.67 costs, Upon this Judgment an execution was issued and placed in the hands of A. B. Munsey Sheriff of said County to be executed, made returnable to 1st Feb rules 1890, and on the return day thereof was returned by said Sheriff with this endorsement thereon, "Not executed no property found, Jan'y 25" 1890, A. B.

Munsey S. L. C." Your orator's said Judgment was also docketed in the lien docket in the Clerk's office of the County Court of said County, on the day of 1889.
Copies of said Judgment, execution & return thereon and the docketing of said Judgment are herewith filed as part hereof marked "A", "B" & "C" respectively.

No part of said Judgment has been paid your orator.
Your orator will now shew unto your honor that the said G. W. Sullivan is the owner of an undivided interest ( $\frac{1}{4}$ ) in a certain tract or parcel of land lying and being in said County, on Powell's river, about two miles South East of Jonesville, containing 136 acres, and which tract descended to the said G. W.

Sullivan and the other three heirs and widow of W<sup>m</sup> Sullivan deceased, from the said decedent, and upon which undivided interest your orator is advised his said judgment is a lien, subject to the dower interest of <sup>the widow of</sup> said decedent in said tract.
Now the object of this bill is to subject the <sup>said</sup> interest of the said G. W. Sullivan in said tract of land to the payment of your orator's judgment, and any others that may exist against said interest, and for this purpose to obtain a decree for the sale of the same and any other real estate or interest in real estate that said Sullivan may own in this County, as the rents and profits of the same will not in five years pay and discharge your orator's said judgment and the costs of this suit. To this end your orator makes the said G. W. Sullivan the party defendant to this bill, and asks, that he be required to answer the same on oath, and on a hearing <sup>that</sup> a decree be rendered appointing a Commissioner to ascertain and report the liens by judgment or otherwise against the said Sullivan's said interests, and finally subjecting the same to sale to pay the said <sup>liens</sup> And for all further and general relief, May process issue, directed &c. And your orator will ever pray &c.

James W Orr, attorney for Complainant.

C. T. Spencer. . . . . Compt.

vs. J. M. Chancery

G. W. Sullivan. . . . . Deft.

The undersigned, in pursuance of a decretal order of the Circuit Court of Lee County Virginia, pronounced on the 2nd day of April 1891 in the above styled matter, having given due notice to all parties concerned, proceeded on the 11th day of July, 1891, and on succeeding days thereafter, at his office in the town of Jonesville Lee County Va. to execute the said order; and the proceedings having been thereforward regularly adjourned from time to time, and being at length completed, the report is herewith respectfully submitted.

The undersigned, after receiving and considering such proof as was offered at the above time and place, made out, according to their practice, and now reports a statement of all debts and demands that constitute liens upon said Sullivan's real estate, that appear to him to be sufficiently proved, and that were brought to his knowledge. It will be seen by a reference to Statement A, that the total indebtedness, due as of Jan. 30th 1891, is $9,988.54, which sum includes $75.00 for estimated costs in this suit. The other debts and demands reported in said statement A, are judgment liens on said Sullivan's real estate, and are in date of priority according to the order of arrangement of the marginal numerals in said statement.

The undersigned was further directed by said decretal order to ascertain and defect what real estate, or interest in real estate, said Sullivan owns in this county subject to his indebtedness, and whether or not the rents and profits of said real estate, or interest therein, would, in five years rent for a sufficient sum to pay off all liens against the same and the costs of this suit. Upon this inquiry the commissioners ascertained that said L. H.

Sullivan is a son and heir at law of one Wm Sullivan dead; that said Wm Sullivan owned in fee simple at the time of his death a tract of land of 150 acres, situated some two or three miles south of Jonesville, Va. on the waters of Powell's River, and also a one third undivided interest in a tract of land of about 200 acres adjoining the above tract, but subject to the life estate of the widow of D. S. Dickerson; that since the death of said Wm Sullivan, about 50 acres of the first above tract have been sold off to pay on his indebtedness; that said Wm Sullivan left surviving him a widow and five children each of whom are over 21 years old, and of whom said L. H. Sullivan, the defendant in this suit, is one; that the 100 acres residue of the tract owned in fee by Wm Sullivan at his death would not, after deducting one third part thereof for the widow's dower, rent for more than $75<sup>00</sup> per annum, of which sum said L. H. Sullivan would only be entitled to one-fifth the front thereof; and that if said P. H. Sullivan's interest in said estate of his father was laid off to him in a bond, it would not, in five years, rent for a sufficient sum to pay off the bond against it and the costs of this suit.

Respectfully submitted, This Oct.
23rd 1891.

To the Hon' H. S. K. Morrison Judge of Lee County Circuit Court.

Your undersigned Commissioner in the chancery cause of O. S. Shewer vs G. W. Sullivan, respectfully reports, That pursuant to the requirements of the decree appointing him for the purpose, he proceeded at the front door of the Court house of said County, on the 7th day of March 1892, being the 1st day of the March term 1892, of the County Court for said County, to offer for sale to the highest bidder, on the terms prescribed in said decree, the interest of the defendant in the two tracts of land in Carrs Gains' report mentioned, it being his one fifth, undivided, of about 100 acres, the Wm Sullivan home place, and in which tract of 100 acres, the widow of said Wm Sullivan is entitled to dower, which has not been assigned her, and Joseph E Harris offering the sum of $5000 for this interest the same was knocked off to him at that price; and then his one fifth undivided of one third of about 200 acres, part of the land of D. S. Dickinson deceased, and which has been assigned to the widow of said Dickinson.

as dower, and on which she now resides, and this last interest was bid off by said Harris at the price of $25.00.

This sale your Court thinks is really below the price said interests should have brought, but said Harris has - failed to comply with the terms of said sale, and has not paid the Costs & come down, nor executed his notes for the residue of said purchase money, and your Court supposes your honor will again direct your Court to again offer said land for sale upon the terms and in the manner heretofore directed: Respectfully submitted To the honorable W. S. K. Morrison Judge of the Circuit Court of Lee County Virginia,

The undersigned Commissioner in the Chancery Cause of O. T. Spencer against G. W. Sullivan, respectfully reports that pursuant to the requirements of the decree in said cause appointing him for the purpose he proceeded again at the front door of the Court house of said County on the 15th day of August 1892, being the first day of the August term 1892 of the County Court for said County, to offer for sale to the highest bidder, on the terms prescribed in said decree the interest of the defendant in the two tracts of land in Commissioner Gains report mentioned, it being his undivided one fifth, of about 100 acres, the <sup>M</sup> Sullivan home place, and in which tract of about 100 acres the widow of said <sup>M</sup> Sullivan is entitled to dower, and which has not been assigned her, and also his one fifth, undivided, of one third of about 200 acres, part of the land of D. S. Dickinson deceased, and which has been assigned to the widow of said Dickinson as dower and on which she now resides, and for these two interests, E. J. Morgan bid the sum of $132.50, and the same being the highest & best bid the same were knocked off to him at that price.
Said Morgan has paid down to your Commissioner the full amount of his said purchase, and your Commissioner holds the same subject to your honor's order. Your Court recommends a confirmation of this sale believing it is as much as defendant's said interests will sell for, though the sum <sup>realized</sup> falls far short of the amount of the indebtedness of defendant. Respectfully submitted.

In the Circuit Court of Lee County, Virginia.
Take notice that, pursuant to decree in the above styled cause of April 2nd, 1891, I shall on the 11th day of July, 1891, at my office in the town of Jonesville, proceed to inquire into and make the statements concerning the matters mentioned in the said decree, and thereby referred to me as commissioner for the purpose. Especially am I directed by said decree to ascertain and state, according to their priorities, all judgments against said G. W. Sullivan, to whom due, together with any other debts or demands that constitute liens upon his real estate; and further, to ascertain what real estate, or interest in real estate the said G. W. Sullivan owns in this county and whether or not said Sullivan's interest therein would in five years, rent for a sufficient amount to pay off all liens against the same, together with the costs of this suit.

All parties interested in the above proceedings will be present at the above time and place with such evidence as will enable me to comply
